TASTING NOTES

This Sauvignon Blanc is crafted from a thoughtful blend of vineyards in Pope Valley and Carneros, two regions that bring complementary qualities to the wine. Grapes were harvested at optimal ripeness to capture both generous aromatics and vibrant acidity. Fermentation was carried out at cool temperatures in stainless steel to preserve the varietal's expressive fruit and floral character, while a brief period of aging on lees enhanced texture and balance. The result is a precise, polished expression of Napa Valley Sauvignon Blanc.

WINEMAKING

Careful attention was given in the winemaking process to highlight the distinct qualities of fruit from both Pope Valley and Carneros. The lots were fermented separately at cool temperatures in stainless steel to protect aromatics and preserve bright acidity. Select portions were aged briefly on lees, adding subtle texture and roundness without diminishing freshness. Once blended, the wine reflects a precise balance of fruit expression, floral lift, and mineral-driven structure that is signature to Napa Valley Sauvignon Blanc.

The 2024 growing season in Napa Valley proved excellent for Sauvignon Blanc, with heavy winter rains and a mild spring fostering healthy canopies and steady vine development. Warm days and consistently cool nights through summer preserved crisp acidity alongside ripe citrus, melon, and subtle herbal tones. Napa's volcanic soils lent a refined mineral backbone, while moderate yields concentrated flavors without sacrificing freshness. Though repeated heat waves challenged many vineyards, early-ripening whites like Sauvignon Blanc thrived thanks to robust canopies and timely harvests. The resulting wines deliver vibrant intensity with enough structure to age gracefully over the next few years, reaffirming Napa's reputation for world-class Sauvignon Blanc.
